HON. HARRY TUCKER RE-ENTER POLITICS

But Friends Say He'll Run for Congress and Not for Governor. From what can be gathered from reliable political sources, it looks as if Hon.

Henry St. George Tucker will not be a candidate for Governor in 1905, but that in the meantime he will enter the race for Congress next year in his old dis-trict against Hon. H. D. Flood. Mr. Tucker, when here the other day, would not discuss the governorship further than to say, with great emphasis, that under no consideration would he oppose his long-time friend, Hon, W. A. Anderson, of Rockbridge, for the honor. It is almost certain that Major Anderson will the Legislature, from the Valley section of the State, in discussing the subject last night, said that he was very much of opinion that the popular ex-Congressman was getting ready to stand for his old seat. "It is remarkable to watch the wonderful display of affection by some of Mr. Tucker's old political enemies, he said twhen the guber at the last discussed. It is plain that some proper would like to see a more for Governor, but I am not at all sure they will. On the other hand, he is a congressional probability that will need watching."

MR. FRANK L. KERNS IS SUING THE ADVOCATE

Buit was instituted yesterday in the Law and Equity Court by Mr. Frank L. Kerns against the Advocate Publishing Company. The amount is $333.41. Mr. Kerns is secretary and treasurer of the Rosebud Missionary Society, and is exceedingly well known in the Virginia Conference. He was formerly connected of Rockbridge, for the honor. It is almost certain that Major Anderson will run, and if these two contingencies shall prevail. Mr. Tucker will not be a factor in the great struggle of 19%.

On the other hand, he is known to still have a lingering affection for congressional life, and came very near opposing Mr. Flood last year.

One of Mr. Tucker's warm friends in Dunlap Hats opened to-day. with the Advocate, When seen last night as declined to discuss the matter of the suit. No declaration was filed. Messays, Guy and Guy have been re-tained by the plaintiff as counsel.
